Do you know what to do in an emergency?

The emergency numbers are staffed 24 hours a day. Calmly place your call... in Japanese!

- Ambulance (Fire Dept.) 119 For illness, injury, etc. An ambulance will be dispatched.
- Fire (Fire Dept.) 119 If you have or are witnessing a fire. A fire truck will be dispatched.
- Traffic accident (Police) 110 For a collision or one-car accident. Police officers will be dispatched.
- Crime (Police) 110 If you have been robbed or caught up in some other crime. Police officers will be dispatched.

Land-line phones, public phones, cell phones and PHS can all use 119 and 110.

These are for EMERGENCIES, so please don't use them to get advice or information.

【From a Public Phone:】

If you use a public phone, the dispatcher can tell where you are calling from even if you don't say it.

If you press the emergency button「緊急用通報ボタン」 you can call 119 or 110 without a coin or phone card.

When calling 119, calmly tell the operator whether you need an ambulance or the fire department.

When calling 110, calmly explain whether it's a traffic accident or a crime you are calling about.

- Disaster Message Board 171 Use it when the phones become unusable due to earthquake, typhoon, etc. You can leave or retrieve a message on it from a phone, cell phone or personal computer
 To record ...171 · 1 · (phone number) · leave your message
 To play back ...171 · 2 · (phone number) · the message plays
