On July 9, 2012, a new Resident Registration System for Foreign Residents will begin. (The current Alien Registration System will be abolished.)

- From July 9th, the same kind of Residence Record (juminhyō) will be made for foreign residents as Japanese citizens have.
- Starting May 21st, a “Provisional Residence Record” will be made for every person registered as an alien resident, and mailed to their residence.
- When you receive your Provisional Residence Record, please make sure the information on it is correct. Corrections can be made at the alien registration window of your ward office or branch office. (If everything on it is correct, you need do nothing.)
- Registered foreign residents whose period of stay ended by May 8th, and those whose period of stay is quite short, will receive an “Important Notice”.
- If you receive one of these notices, you need to go to the Immigration Bureau to extend your period of stay or change your status of residence.
- Provisional Residence Records and Important Notices will be sent by simplified registered mail.
 - They will be sent out to each individual separately (so for example a family of four should receive four Provisional Residence Records.)
 - Included in each envelope is an explanatory pamphlet in six languages (English, Chinese, Korean, Portuguese, Spanish and Tagalog), so please read this carefully.

Questions should be directed to : Kawasaki Provisional Residence Record Call Center (supports the 6 languages above) ☎ 0570-01-0002
