Foreign Residents: Have You Completed Procedures To Get Your New Residence Card?

The new residence management system went into effect on July 9, 2012.

Since then the old Certificate of Alien Registration has been considered to be equivalent to a Residence Card, but this will end on July 8, 2015.

If you have not yet gone to get your new Residence Card, you should do so as soon as possible.

It seems likely that the place where you get your new card will be extremely busy for the last few months before the deadline, so please do not delay.

1. Where : your nearest Regional Immigration Office or branch office
2. Deadline : July 8, 2015
※Applications are being accepted right now!
3. Documents you will need : your current Certificate of Alien Registration, your passport (assuming you have one) and a recent photograph (4cm×3cm)
