Kawasaki Halloween 2008

(368) 「カワサキハロウィン2008」について

This annual event has become something Kawasaki City is famous for. And this year again, from Saturday October 18th to Sunday October 26th the area around La Cittadella, on the East side of JR Kawasaki Station, will be hosting the festivities. During this time, the merrymakers will be painting the Higashiguchi area orange, figuratively speaking.

An opening ceremony will be held on the 18th, and in the days following there will be a stamp rally, a party (actually several of those), horror movies, and contests. There will be a face-painting booth, a place to get special-effects makeup applied to you, and all sorts of other things to do.

On Saturday the 25th, in the plaza in La Cittadella, there will be a dance party to bring out a new song written especially for Kawasaki Halloween.

And on the final day, Sunday the 26th, the largest costume parade in the country will be held; around three thousand people are expected to show up in their best monster garb to parade around the Kawasaki Station area.

So why not come out and join the fun at the biggest Halloween event in all of Japan?

For any questions concerning this festival, please call the Kawasaki Halloween Project at 0 4 4 - 2 3 3 - 1 9 3 4 .
