Child-Care Information for Foreign Residents

(外国人の子育てひろばについて)

A support center has been set up for foreign residents who have children aged between 0 and 3 years old. This support center has been organized by a community -based network group for child rearing support , "GRAPE" at Tama Shiminkan (Tama Citizen Hall).

This has been set up so that foreign parents who live in Japan and do not often get the chances to meet other people can get together to exchange ideas and tips and to make new friends amongst other parents and children.

Foreign mothers might have various kinds of worries and troubles on raising small children and meeting their peers while they live in another country. By chatting with each other, giving one another advice and having the occasional event from time to time it should all in all be a good time for parents and kids. This activity will be open until the 28th of March 2006 on the second Friday of the month for 2 hours from between 10:00am and 12:00 noon. It is free to join but there may sometimes be events, such as cooking, when you will have to pay. For more information please contact the Tama Shiminkan at 044-935-3333.
