

New Rules for Parking Your Bike Near Kuji Station

(283) 久地駅周辺の自転車放置禁止区域について

Beginning on March 1st, the streets, sidewalks, alleyways et cetera around Kuji Station on the Nanbu Line become a no-parking zone for bicycles and similar vehicles. If you need to park near Kuji Station you'll have to use a designated parking lot. These lots will have attendants stationed at them, and a small fee will be charged to park there. It'll cost 80 yen to park a bicycle for up to a day, or 100 yen to park a motorcycle for up to a day.

Bicycles, motorcycles and similar vehicles found illegally parked will be removed and placed in storage. Those not claimed within a month will be disposed of. The cooperation of all residents is requested.

For more information you can call the Construction Bureau, Bicycle Section (that's the KENSETSU-KYOKU JITENSHA TAISAKU-SHITSU in Japanese); their phone number is 044-200-2303.

Is Your Water Meter Scheduled for Replacement?

(284) 水道メーターの取り替えについて

The water meter at your home is actually there on loan from the Waterworks Bureau, and in accordance with the laws on weights and measures the old meter is to be replaced with a new meter once every eight years.

If your water meter is scheduled to be replaced, you will receive a notice to that effect beforehand. On the designated day either a Waterworks Bureau employee or an employee of a designated company entrusted with the job by the Bureau will come to your house to do the work.

Having your water meter changed out will cost you absolutely nothing, so your cooperation is appreciated. If the person who comes to replace your meter is a private contractor designated by the Waterworks Bureau, they will be wearing a special armband identifying them as such.

You can get more information by calling the Waterworks Bureau, Water Service Installation Center (called the SUIDOU-KYOKU KYUUSUI SOUCHI SENTAA in Japanese); their phone number is 044-544-6702.

A Concert for the Whole Family

. (285) オルガンコンサートについて
