Six Points for Using 110

If there has been an incident or accident, calmly dial 110. The police will ask for the following details. Please try to answer the officer's questions calmly.

1. What happened? (What was the accident or incident?)
2. When did it happen? (Exact time if possible.)
3. Where did it happen? (Be as specific as possible; use the exact address if you can)
4. Tell me about the criminal. (Details about their appearance, the vehicle they used to get away, which way they went, etc.)
5. What is the situation now? (For example, is there damage that needs repair, an injured person who needs help, etc.)
6. Can you give me your name please? (Also the name, gender, address and phone number of any victims, witnesses etc.)

The Kanagawa Prefectural Police have a different number for reporting non-urgent matters, getting advice on crime and accident prevention, making suggestions or complaints about the police, etc.

For consultation dial # 9 1 1 0 or 0 4 5 - 6 6 4 - 9 1 1 0 .
