Information Session:

Enrolling a Foreign Child in Elementary School

“What’s elementary school like in Japan?” “I don’t speak Japanese, so I won’t understand the orientation session...” etc. This information session addresses concerns like these held by foreign children and their parents or guardians about entering elementary school. Through a talk by a former ES principal, video presentation and a multilingual guidebook (includes also Japanese text with furigana), learn about elementary school life, what supplies the child will need on the first day, etc.

See the homepage of the Kawasaki International Association or a flyer for details.

When: January 28, 2023 (Sat) 13:30~16:00

Where: Kawasaki International Center Hall

※Childcare and interpreters available (reservation required)
