There are famous places for cherry blossom trees in Kawasaki,where you can enjoy the Japanese traditional custom of Hanami. Hanami is } a kind of picnic under blooming cherry trees.

First up is Midorigaoka-Reien, this being a cemetary set up by Kawasaki for the faithfully departed. During the cherryblossom season Midorigaoka-Reien, which has several hundred cherry trees, is one of the best places of all the competing places to see cherry blossoms. You can get to Midorigaoka-Reien by getting out at the Tsudayama station on the JR Nambu line.

Next is the Yumemi-gasaki Animal Park. There are over 400 animals from at least 50 different species, for exapmle the Lesser Panda and the Humboldt Penguin. Within the Yumemi-gasaki Animal Park there are over 500 cherry trees such as the Higan and the Someiyoshino species. To get to the Yumemi-gasaki Animal Park you can take a bus from the West Exit of Kawasaki station and get off at the bus stop marked Yumemi-gasaki Dobutsu Koen Mae bus stop and then its a 5 minute walk.Or you can reach the Yumemi-gasaki Animal Park by getting out of the Kashimada station on the JR Nambu line and then its a 20 minute walk to The Animal Park.

Next: the Nikaryo-yosui stream walkway that is nearby the area from Shukugawara station on the JR Nambu line and Ryokka Centre. This area of cherry trees has been kept in good condition thanks to preservation group set up by the local people.

Following on,we have Nikaryo-yosui stream that goes through Nakahara ward. The cherry trees here start from the Imaikamicho-ryokudo area,past the Nakahara peace park and then go onto the Nakahara ward office.From the ward office the Nikaryo-yosui splits up becoming the Shibakawa which continues on to Motosumiyoshi and the Karugamonosato.

Lastly there's the Kajigaya Dai-ichi Koen in Takatsu ward. Here there are over 280 cherry trees that when in bloom become a busy attraction for people doing "Hanami". Its a 15 minute walk to the Kajigaya Dai-ichi Koen from Kajigaya station on the Denentoshi line.

These are all the popular places you can visit when the cherry blossoms are in bloom, not only are the beautiful they are free to view. If you do plan to have a Hanami party be sure to clean up and rubbish afterwards.
