

Study Japanese in Kawasaki

(289)

「日本語学級」について

Japanese language classes are held in various places around Kawasaki City. The classes cover the Japanese speaking, reading and writing skills needed for daily living in this country. They also introduce the basic customs and manners everyone in Japan should know. Given by volunteer teachers, they're meant to be a fun way to learn in the company of friends.

The classes are intended for the benefit of foreign residents and recent returnees living or working in Kawasaki City.

The classes run for one year terms. They're held at various civic halls and similar places in the different wards of the city. For more information about the classes, or to apply, please contact the venue of the class you are interested in directly.

Here are the phone numbers for the various venues:

Education Culture Hall (or KYOIKU BUNKA KAIKAN in Japanese), 2 3 3 - 6 3 6 1.
